

*Follow your calling! Create a new self!
Get to grips with becoming a self-employed artist in tough times*

make*shift*

FREE individually tailored arts skills training, work experience and mentoring programme, alongside production for The Thames Festival Night Carnival

- ➔ Entrepreneurial Advice
- ➔ Networking
- ➔ Peer-to-peer learning
- ➔ Creating an on-line portfolio
- ➔ Work placement opportunities

Navigating the right path for further specialised arts training or creative and sustained self-employment

Summer training offered by highly experienced practitioners in street and community arts. Select own personal programme -choices in digital marketing; event management/ production; design for outdoor performance; costume, puppet making; carnival choreography and mime; community arts leadership

Limited places, to apply please contact:

makeshift@in-tototheatre.co.uk

Facebook Group:

makeshift hub

Telephone:

020 7261 1515

19 – 24s currently unemployed or under employed in the arts